

Georgia Cities Foundation has a new revolving loan program to fund "green" initiatives for downtown buildings. This Green Communities Fund will provide low interest financing to business and/or property owners for energy efficient and sustainable improvements to downtown commercial properties.

If you are a business operating within the KDDA metes and bounds, click this link to get more information: <http://www.georgiacitiesfoundation.org/>